The unit's :

1. Unit 1 : previewing for information

We predict things every day, imagine one evening you look out the windows and you see snow falling. And you see the magazine or newspaper. A little later the weather reporter on TV says it's going to snow all night and the temperature will stay in the teens. You can guess, or predict that the roads will be icy and dangerous the next morning. The article a complete piece of writing in magazine or newspaper.

In practice have then choose the best answer for each question.

The scanning is quickly running your eyes over passage to look for specific for information.

2. Unit 2 : Getting meaning from word

Using context clues

When you are reading, do you sometimes find words you don't understand ? how can you find out what the word mean ? if a word were all alone without any other words around it, you'd have a hard time figuring out its meaning without looking it up in a dictionary.

3. Unit 3 : Finding the main idea

Most written material such as book, magazine articles, and newspaper stories are made up of paragraphs. A paragraph is a group of sentences placed together on a page. The sentences in a paragraph are about the same idea.

4. Unit 4 : organizing ideas

Showing time order : Paricutin is a volcano in western Mexico that appeared out of nowhere and destroyed a town. One day in 1943, a farmer noticed that a small hill had grown in his cornfield.

5. Unit 5 : interpreting what you read

Making inferences : first, you saw that the aviary was in a place that has monkeys and birds. From this, you inferred that the aviary was at the zoo. You read that the aviary was full of birds. You read that it looked like jungle. You put all that information together and came up with more information on your own

6. Unit 6 : understanding poetry and fiction

Identifying imagery in poetry

Some people

Isn't it strange some people make you feel so tired inside,

Your thoughts begin to shrivel up

Like leaves all brown and dried !

But when you're with some other ones,

It's strangers still to find

Your thoughts as thick as fireflies

All shiny in your ,mind !
